"Possibly you can bring entire family. The Estonians must be taken out on this trip, and expedition will not start if this not agreed. We do not know identities of Estonians. Report immediately when and where he should go. Must have some radio contact even after you leave the region. Report what you have done in this matter. How are chances of getting a row boat?"

Extra message same week:

"Try to get a radio operator through Alise Anderson. We have heard that there are Soviet searchlights in the coastal region. Check and see if this is correct."

Notes: According to TILBURY, Alise Anderson is a woman who lives in Riga who was

"The expedition cannot take place since the preparations which we directed in our message of 10 Oct have not been carried out. We have not been given any address for the Estonian to contact and he cannot reach you in time. You have not said anything about a meeting place on the beach. Some of our difficulties are technical, since it has been difficult to receive your communications. However, the risks for all members of the expedition are too great, and it is not only a question of risk to your family. In addition, have just received information that indicated the expedition has almost no chance of success. We have not abandoned idea of the expedition, but the preparations take considerable time, and we cannot take a trip this winter. Most of all we have to know (1) the contact point, address and password for the Estonian, to be "Happy new year. Thus far I have not found any radio operator. Before Alice will do anything definite she demands to know what is in the package for RUDIS."

states that the phrase "package for RUDIS" is a password between the Swedes and "Alice" their agent who has been described in reference () as one Alice ANDERSON, a TIEBAR contact; this password was set up by the Swedes during earlier contact with this agent.

28 Dec. 1951

"We hope to be able to tell you the contents of the package for RUDIS next week. How is your situation now?"

"The package contains the portrait of ^{JANIS} ~~ANNE~~ SAULITIS's dead wife, which is in a silver frame. Rudis is now in Sweden and he greets Alica and Mollie."

I MET ALISE. SHE HAS NO CONTACT WITH SAULITIS OLDS, OR HER PARENTS, VICTIMS AND IS AFRAID TO TAKE UP CONTACT WITH THEM. ALISE DID NOT KNOW WHO 'BRALITIS', 'MICHAELS', OR 'VENTERIST' WERE. WHY DOESN'T SAULITIS GIVE ME A DIRECT CONTACT WITH HIS WIFE AND NOT GO THROUGH UNNECESSARY PERSONS? SHOULD I PERSONALLY SEEK OUT SAULITIS' RELATIVES?
